Double Jeopardy: Surviving the Need for Long-Term Care as Well as the Cost

A free guide or phone chat prepares you with the survival skills

Manhasset, NY July 5, 2022 -- Financial problems, on the heels of cancer, Alzheimer's, or other major afflictions, may be avoided by planning for care in advance, according to Manhasset-based long-term care agent, Gene Cutler.

The information is available in just minutes, in two ways:

- Download a free guide, "Why You Should Consider Coverage," from from Cutler's website. <http://www.genecutler.com>, or
- Talk with Cutler by phone, at 516-869-6767.

"However you get it, this information is vital to have," says Cutler. "Medical bankruptcy is a huge problem that regular health insurance often fails to prevent,"

Cutler points to research at Harvard University that exposes the medical bankruptcy problem. "According to Harvard's studies," Cutler says, "a majority of U.S. personal bankruptcies are due to medical problems. Even more shocking, the majority of affected families had regular health insurance, but that wasn't enough. They still went bankrupt."

Gene Cutler's company, ACSIA Partners LLC, offers a wide range of long-term care insurance policies from multiple leading carriers. "But that's just for starters," says Cutler. "In addition to traditional long-term care insurance, we also offer several other ways to pay for care." These include -

- "Hybrid" policies (typically life insurance with long-term care riders)
- Annuities with tax-advantaged long-term care features
- Critical illness insurance
- Additional protections, including long-term care education and referrals to top care services

"There's just no reason to go bankrupt if you plan properly," Cutler says. "We're in the planning business. It's our mission to help everyone -- including those who may not want insurance or don't qualify for it."

"Unlike many agencies that only serve the consumer market, we're also a leader in protection for a variety of organizations," Cutler says. "We offer educational opportunities to associations, worksites, and strategic partnerships. Our worksite offerings include portable individual voluntary plans with group advantages."
